I just skimmed this and it looks good - very clearly and simply written. I don't think we need to find something to say about EDCs; there probably isn't much they can assess there. The very last comment seems unfinished?

Karen,

I'm still waiting for some feedback, however, these are fairly complete. There isn't much more value I can add to them content wise, but they could use some streamlining. We've put a lot of time into them already so let me know if you'd like me to condense them further.

Thanks Bruce & Carolyn for your input.
Erin
